THE TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT, - 1a many respects the meeting of last night at the M. E. Church are considered the most successful of the temperaces campsige. Mr. Berry, President of the Georgetown Dishaway Cub. was present with eight or tea of his mer. The andience was unexpectedly large, and the sieg ing, led by Mr. Chamberlain, of Georgetowo. excellent. Some of the officers of the R form Club, Rev. Messes, Boyle and Pearce, together with the speakers, occupied the platform. Af ter the introductory exercises. Mr. Berry was introduced. He spoke mainly of his own sad bistny as a drinking man, and of his reformation. At the close of his address be introduced Mr. Wikins, a young men of an old and houored family, who is now rapidly regaining the position and character from which he tell, by strong drink. He spoke for half an hour to the most chase, modest and reottomanly way. He teld the story of his designated life and of his reformation in such caracat, simple, and yet, cultured is naugo that it affected the au dience deeply. There was a total absence of the personal boasting and the attempt at oratory, which so often disgues people with the speeches of refermed men. He was followed by Mr. Jerry Williams, who made a very coter taining speech. There yie was quite original and spier. He had been lifted by the temperance referm from a life of wretched drugken sess, and his description of the contrast be tween his former life and his present, affected the audience by turns to tests and laughter. During the signing of the pledge the interest ran high. Among the mea who went forward were a tumber, whose greatest enemy is whis key. As one of these men came forward the singing was interrupted, while Mr. Pearce asked the audience to pray that that man then about to write his name might have God's help to keep the pledge, for he had no power to do it himself, as he had repeatedly filed, and stowalmost a wrick. Rav. Mr. Boye men led the audience in prayer for the man. The Reformed Cub had a meeting at the close of the public exercises. Reports from various committees were received, and place for more extended operations were decided upo 1. Among these is the renting of a had, to be fitted up as a reading room and place of resort, in which, also, public meeting can be held.

DR. BAGBY'S LECTURE .- Dr. Bagby, the author of the celebrated "Meekins's Twinses," which was read here some time ago by Prof. Scharff, will deliver bis lecture on "The Old Virginia Gentleman" te-morrew night. We would advise all these who have not heard the Doctor to go, and feel sure that those who have had that pleasure will not let this opportunity escape unimproved. The Dector's taken; fet the humerous makes him a general favorite. Judge Jeseph Christian, of the Court of Ap. peals, says of "The Old Virginia Gentleman : I had the pleasure of hearing this lecture ast winter; and I unhesitatingly pronounce it. beyond doubt, the very best production of that sifted lecturer and humorist. It not only abounds in exquaite humor and touching nathos, but rises to all the true dignity of real elequence. Every man, woman and child in Virginia ought to hear it.'

TABLEAUX, - The ladies of St. P. u's Church contemplate giving, in about two weeks from now, what cannot fail to be a charming enter tainment, for the benefit of the Airxardria In firmary. It is in the hands of certain young ladies who never fail in what they undertake. They will present to all our good people, to aid of this noble charity, representations to the form of rableaux of Longfe law's "Evangeline," after Dore's illustrations. One of Alexandria's fair daughters, as gifted as she is fair, the peeress of any in all this triad land, in the very different and difficult roles of bril i ant and beautiful, will render Erange ice. Expectation will stand tiproe, and will be gratified.

THE CONFEDERATE GRAVES, -- As will be seen by the proceedings of the City Council elsawhere in to day's Gazatte, permission has been granted to the Southern Memorial Association to remove the remains of the Confeder ate soldiers now buried in the Soldiers' Cemotry and reinter them in Christ Church yard. It is resposed to rejuter the bones of the brave men in a simple mound, with a neat tablet thereon. It has also been suggested that a marble shaft should be erected, inscribed with the names and commemorating the brave deeds of the deseased ex-Uentederates who went our from this city.
